

19th Annual St. Xavier High School Alumni Retreat

St. Meinrad Archabbey

Saturday, January 20 and Sunday January 21, 2018

“Christian Hospitality in a World filled with Fear”

“Only the prayerful, seriously committed Christian can expect to be free enough from what they fear (which is the basis for all our sinful “attachments”) so as to be free enough to genuinely love our neighbor and to receive the “other” (neighbor) who may be quite different from me and to be receptive to their differences so as to accept them as they are, allowing them to be who they are and loving them as they are.

We must be free to love, and it is for the sake of this freedom that Christ has come (Gal. 5:1). The Christian life is about collaborating with grace (God’s assistance) in order to be free to love; to love as God loves because true love is necessarily freely given, never earned.” Father Adrian Burke, OSB
